CONTENTS

Introduction into Health-Related Folklore and Its Research: From First-Hand Experiences to Second-Hand Narrating Models
Reet Hiiemäe 7

Vernacular Reactions to COVID-19 in Estonia: Crisis Folklore and Coping
Reet Hiiemäe, Mare Kalda, Mare Kõiva, Piret Voolaid 21

The General, His Fandom, and a Participatory Pandemic
Angelina Ilieva 53

COVID-19 and the Traditional Culture of the Udmurts
Nikolai Anisimov, Galina Glukhova 79

Thomas J. Ndaluka, Magolanga Shagembe, Jonas Kinanda, Vendelin Simon 117

Online Coping with the First Wave: Covid Humor and Rumor on Dutch Social Media (March – July 2020)
Theo Meder 135

Early Days of the Novel Coronavirus: Public Response in Social Media during the First Month of the Outbreak
Maris Kuperjanov 159

From “Unbelievable Stupidity” to “Secret Clues for Staying Healthy”: CAM Landscape and Boundary-Work in Estonian and Finnish Mainstream Media in April 2020
Reet Hiiemäe, Terhi Utriainen 183

“Doctors Just Don’t Care about People!” How Medical Specialists Are Depicted in a Vaccine-Critical Estonian Facebook Group
Marko Uibu 215
NEWS IN BRIEF

Autumn School Concentrated on Interdisciplinary Dialogues with Health.
Reet Hiiemäe
239

241

BOOK REVIEWS

Assembling Therapeutics. Reet Hiiemäe
244