CONTENTS

ARTICLES

Zeynep Zafer
Against the Barriers. The Unusual Story of the Usual Yusein Mashev … 11

Andronika Màrtonova
Traumatic Insight on Film Memory: Forced Assimilation in the Focus of Post-totalitarian Bulgarian Documentaries …………. 33

Valentin Voskresenski
Monumental Memorialization of Political Violence in Bulgaria (1944 – 1989): beyond Traumatization, Contestation and Dangerization of Memory ……………………………………… 49

Milena Angelova
Visionarity and Health: The Semashko Model and the Sovietization of Public Health in Bulgaria (1944–1951) …………………… 74

Kristina Popova
"Sleeping rabbits stay alive two weeks longer than others": The Institute of Physiology in Yerevan after the "Pavlov’s Session" in 1950 ………. 104

Mincho Georgiev, Anelia Kassabova
Dr Vladimir Kalaydzhiev or the Embodiment of Modernity ………… 125

Maroš Melichárek
War Song in a Service of Ideology. Comparative Essay on the Example of Yugoslav and Ukrainian-Russian Conflicts ………………… 148

Dominika Kubišová
Verbal Manipulation in Political Discourse: Metaphors, Clichés, Emotions and Symbols in F. Tuđman’s Speeches During Wartime Period 1990-1995 ………………………………………………… 169

Katerina Gadjeva
„One Day he Will Find me and Save me”. The Dream for Prince Known from the Fairy Tales of Charles Perrault and Brothers Grimm and the Accompanying Illustrations ……………………………………………… 183
Georgeta Nazarska
Socio-Religious Visionaries in Bulgaria (1920–1950s): the Christo Oustabachieff Case .......................................................... 195

Elena Krejčová, Nadezhda Stalyanova
Family and Community Memory as a Vision for the Future.
Ivan P. Milev – Chronicler and Visionary of the Bulgarian Village………219

Ilko Drenkov
Dr. Radan Angelov Sarafov and his Sacrifice for Democracy………………229

Sadik Haci
Hasan Eren - from Vidin to the Peaks of Turkology........................248

Magdalena Kostova – Panayotova
Danilo Kish's Fictional Self and the Father's Figure
(„Garden. Ashes“ and „Hourglass“)................................................262

Stiliyan Stoyanov
Mass Ideologies for Young Men and Women...................................273

Tatiana Nevskaya, Alla Kondrasheva
Ideology and Utopia: the National State Structure of the USSR
(Presented on the Example of the North Caucasus Territories).............288

Stavris Parastatov
Eurasianism Today and What Lev Gumilev Was Right About.............303

Marine Aroshidze and Nino Aroshidze
The Great Social Experiment: when Dreams did not Turn into Reality…..314

Veronika Bocsi, Tímea Ceglédi
Is the Glass Ceiling Inaccessible? The Educational Situation of Roma Youth in Hungary.................................................................329

Dobrinka Chankova
Restorative Justice as a New Response to Crime - the Modern Vision and Bulgarian Dreamers and Opponents.......................................344

Diana Veleva Ivanova
Political Visionary of the Founder of Vis egrad Group.......................355
Soham Mukherjee, Madhumita Roy
The Postcolonial Nature of the Post-Soviet Space: a Reading of the Cultural Condition of Albania.................................................. 369

Elona Kodhel, Eris Rusi
Discourse on Europe and the European Identity of Albanians............. 386

PhD STUDENT FORUM

Hristina Manova
The Dream of Pirin National Park and the Realities of Socialist Eco-Policies in the 1960s and 1970s............................................. 402

Konstantine Shubitidze
First Democratic Republic of Georgia (1918-1921), a Result of the Changes in the International System.............................................. 414

THEN

You Can’t Say Something New in the Science if You don’t Disturb the Old: it is not Possible Only to Build over A Conversation with Prof. Rusi Rusev (1948 - 2010)......................... 425

BOOK REVIEWS

Milena Angelova
Shared Histories and Multidisciplinary Perspectives on Southeastern Europe – Festschrift for Karl Kaser................................. 436

Katarína Maruškinová
Bulgarian Protestants and the Czech Village of Voyvodovo. A Review... 445

Antoaneta Mihailova
Ein Beitrag zu der Mehrsprachigkeit in Europa.............................. 449

Kostadin Paev
A New Study on the South Slavic Legal Literature.......................... 459

Ventsislav Bozhinov
Bulgarian Sephardian Jews and the Ladino Language in the Kaleidoscope of Identities......................................................... 464

Mihaylina Pavlova, Dolores Meshulam
Let's Talk with Good!.................................................................. 470